The W. M. U. of the Baptist church met at the Parsonage with Mrs. Brown, Thursday afternoon, for the monthly Missionary meeting. After the Bible study and an interesting lesson out of "Royal Service," conducted by Mrs. Carle, delicious refreshments of Angel food cake and chocolate were served to sixteen guests.

Judge H. E. Haass, secretary of the Hondo Farm Loan Association this week transmitted approximately $16,200 in payments of semi-annual interest on loans in this county. Out of a total of one hundred and forty-five borrowers there were but nine delinquent, and three of these have signified their purpose of making early settlements.

An error in W. H. Windrow's advertisement on the third page of February Farming makes it state that a $10.00 purchase is necessary to secure a free copy of one of Dr. LeGear's poultry books, whereas, Mr. Windrow gives one with each dollar purchase of the LeGear preparations. We regret this error and hope it will not cause any one to fail to secure these valuable books.

Because the Anvil Herald felt it its duty to warn certain of our people against the evil effects of wild and baseless rumors on the one hand, and of the harmful consequences to be expected on the other hand should certain rumors that were floating promiscuously around, and already arousing suspicions and enmity between neighbors and erstwhile friends, prove to have a basis in fact, the Devine News "shuck its coat", so to speak, and plunged into the fracas with the avidity of a sow returning to her wallow, and in doing so had to besmear itself in the slime of its own town's immorality. Seeing it had again opened its mouth only to put its foot in it, it comes back now with the confession that "The News doesn't know anything about it, and don't care." Such frankness is so rare in the News as to be really refreshing, and we suppose that should settle the matter. But out of a spirit of brotherly forgiveness, we will advise the News to "know" something hereafter before it shoots off its bazzoo and have a "care" as to what is to be the effect of its speech or else remain silent.

When you see the sign of the Blue Bell, remember, you're near home. The actual distance—over rivers, mountains and deserts—may be miles or hundreds of miles; but the Blue Bell means a telephone—a cheerful corps of Long Distance operators—at your service, ready to transport your voice—you.

How You May Send Your Voice Home

A Long Chance

Chick, who had been a South Carolina mountaineer before the war and was used to having more or less his own way about things, was making his entrance at belated hours into camp after a somewhat moist session in town. A guard greeted him: "Halt, who's there?"

This was too silly and Chick sniggered.

"Son," he called back, "you couldn't guess in a thousand years."—American Legion Weekly.

FROM THE BANDERA NEW ERA.

MARRIED LAST SUNDAY.

Mr. Adolph Boehme and Miss Versie Hodges, of the Pipe Creek community, were married in Bandera last Sunday, Judge A. L. Mansfield officiating. This was the judge's first attempt to tie the Gordian Knot, but he made it fast, and the happy young couple is now receiving the congratulations of their many friends. The groom is an industrious stock farmer, and the bride is a daughter of Captain Franklin Hodges who lives near Pipe Creek. The New Era predicts happiness and prosperity for Mr. and Mrs. Boehme, and joins in all good wishes.

GETS TWELVE YEARS.

Chas. Merritt was convicted in district court at Kerrville last week and given twelve years in the penitentiary for participation in the attempt to rob the First National Bank of Bandera. Jonnie Odell received a sentence of five years in Bandera district court last spring for complicity in the same crime. McMillan, another one of the alleged robbers died in San Antonio a short time ago before being brought to trial. The attempt was made to rob the First National Bank by blowing open the safe with nitroglycerine, the robbers being scared away by citizens who gave the alarm. They were apprehended as they approached San Antonio, and one of them was shot in effecting their capture. An unbroken chain of circumstantial evidence worked for their conviction.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

ROUND ABOUT THE HOME

RICE IN YOUR MENUS.

By Helen H. Downing

Rice has taken the front row among economy foods for the United States.

A United States government bulletin states that rice forms the principal food of one-half the population of the earth.

Variety of Uses.

Through our own South there are many famous rice dishes such as fruit puddings, cakes, croquettes, boiled rice and flaked rice.

Remembering the food value we suggest its use with sockeye salmon or with choice sardines.

Splendid casserole dishes are made with rice and cheese, or rice, fried bacon and a can of tomatoes. These latter dishes will serve as the main dish of a hearty meal.

Food Value.

Rice is a concentrated food. It is very nutritious and is easily digestible. Analysis shows that it compares most favorably with potatoes. Its principal food constituent is starch which turns to sugar in the mouth and supplies the body with heat and energy. There is also a small percentage of protein and a wee bit of fat. Rice flour is richer in fat than rice itself; the flour is made of the outer covering. A good food balance is maintained when rice is served with bacon or ham.

In buying rice be sure to get an uncoated, or natural finish product. The only way you can be assured of this is to buy it in the package with the description on the label.

Coated rice is barred sale in some states. It is an inferior product that has been put through a special solution to whiten it. Wild rice and lower grades are often given this treatment to produce the white appearance of high grade products that come out of the hullers with the natural brown inner coat loosened and easily removable by the polishing pads or brushes.

The following recipes become very popular after having once been tried:

Rice Pie Crust.

Line a pie tin with freshly boiled drained rice. Press rice down carefully to form a lower crust 1-4 inch thick. Let stand until set. When cool, fill with any desired cream or fruit filling. Cover with a meringue or whipped cream. Serve the same as any pie.

Rice Griddle Cakes.

2 eggs, well beaten 2-3 to 1 cup sweet milk 2 tablespoons sugar
Add 1 cup well cooked rice A pinch of salt
Use flour enough to make a batter and 2 level teaspoons baking powder. Mix well in small cakes. Bake the same as any griddle cakes.

Rice Muffins.

2 1-2 cup flour
1 cup boiled rice 2 1-2 teaspoon baking powder 1-2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 egg, well beaten 1-2 cup melted butter Sift together thoroughly flour, baking powder and salt. Add rice, working it with tips of fingers, and gradually milk, egg and butter. Bake in gem pans in moderate oven.

Rice Waffles.

1 3-4 cup flour
2-3 cup cold cooked rice 3 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1 tablespoon melted butter Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Work in rice with tips of the fingers; add milk, yolk of egg, well beaten; then butter and white of egg after beating stiff. Cook as waffles.

THE FRIENDS OF TREES.

It is said that two things stood out at the meeting of the Texas Horticultural Society with the Texas Nurserymen's Association. The first of these was the enthusiasm of these friends of trees and the other was the number of hale and hearty old men who evidently found pleasure, as well as livelihood, in the planting, tending and care of trees. The interest of an old man in a tree has been suitably celebrated in verse and prose, and yet the zest of life and verve that these sturdy tree specialists get from their active and outdoor life shows that they make it worth while for themselves as well as for their customers and for posterity to plant a tree and treat it with consideration though the fruit of it be for others.

The coming together of the men who know trees and love trees is of great benefit to Texas—or can be made so, if we but profit by the lessons they delight to make plain to all who will listen. We can learn, for example, how a few buckets of water, rightly applied, can save a tree during a period of drouth, whereas, without the water or the proper application of it, the loss of the tree is certain. A dead tree is something of a tragedy anywhere. But it is doubly so when it represents an investment of time and money and its death means ignorance and neglect.

The day ought to come when almost every farm in Texas will have its orchard—not perhaps a large one, nor one in all cases given over to a wide variety of fruit—but at least a corner where some kind of fruit can be raised to give flavor and variety to them during the winter months as well as while the bearing time is at harvest. But that day will not come until Texans learn how to care for trees and how to select trees that will pay for their upkeep. For knowledge of that sort we must always go to the friends of trees and the true friend of trees will always fall upon your request as a sign of brotherhood and bring forth out of the storehouse of his experience things new and old for your guidance and benefit. There seems almost to be something about the beneficent nature of trees that becomes a very part of those who make their living among trees and with the tending of them. That's the difference between a real friend of trees and a mere salesman of them.—Galveston News.

IS THE PROPOSED BILL A SOUND MEASURE?

In its recent convention at Cleveland, the "Conference of Progressive Political Action" indorsed what is known as the "Consumers' and Producers' Financing Corporation Bill," designed to help the farmers.
In substance the bill provides that the Secretary of Agriculture and two additional persons appointed by the President, shall constitute a corporation to be known as "the Farmers' and Consumers' Corporation." The capital stock of the corporation shall be $100,000,000, all of which shall be subscribed by the United States. The money shall be subject to the call of two-thirds of the board of directors with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, and the funds are "hereby appropriated" as may be needed "out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated." The managers are to be the Secretary of Agriculture and the two others appointed by the President with the advice and approval of the Senate. Any member of the board except the Secretary of Agriculture may be removed from office by concurrent resolution of the Senate and House. The annual salaries of the two members outside the Secretary of Agriculture shall be $12,000.

The corporation is to be empowered to build, lease and operate elevators and storage warehouses, to buy and sell agricultural products, to "make advances for the purpose of assisting any person or co-operative organization in financing the sale or exportation of such agricultural products; but in no case shall any of the money so advanced be expended without the United States." Adequate security shall be prescribed by the board of directors.
It is announced that the purpose of the bill is "to provide a market for the sale of agricultural products, and to eliminate commissions and charges, thus increasing prices to the farmers." Bonds due in ten years or less may be issued up to five times the paid-up capital stock. The bonds are to be a first lien on the assets of the corporation and may be offered to the public.

The net earnings of the corporation are to be held as a reserve up to $100,000,000; then if not required to pay off the bonds shall be turned into the Treasury until the refund equals the amount the Treasury advanced. All bonds are to be exempt from taxes except estate and inheritances, sur-taxes and excess profit taxes.

In order to reduce ocean freight rates, the corporation is to be given the right to take over and operate any of the vessels owned by the United States not chartered or leased for the purpose of carrying any such farm products to foreign ports. The President is authorized to turn any vessel over to the corporation "when in his judgment the business of said corporation is sufficient to warrant it." No charge is to be made against the corporation for the use of any such vessel.

In plain language, the Treasury is to turn over one hundred million dollars or as much as may be demanded by the board of directors of the corporation, for the purpose of buying and selling farm products, storing the same on speculation. The government is to furnish the farmers a market for any and all their agricultural products, presumably at any price the corporation may decide.

The loan feature to assist the farmers is precisely what the War Finance Corporation is doing now, and has been doing to the extent of more than a billion dollars. Even this has its objections as a financial operation, and is justified only as an emergency measure; but to authorize the government through a new agency known as the "Farmers' and Consumers' Financing Corporation" to go into the business of dealing in wheat and other farm products, to act as an agent for any person or co-operative farm association, to hold and store farm products in unlimited quantities in order to provide a market for the sale of agricultural products, on its face appears to be unsound in principle and unsafe in practice.

The creation of a "Farmers' and Consumers' Financing Corporation" with $100,000,000 capital, all owned by the United States, does not remove the federal government from the liability. The new corporation has no funds and must borrow by issuing bonds. If the plan were limited to making advances to assist the farmers, the government taking notes secured by warehouse receipts which are negotiable instruments, the experiment might be considered only as an emergency.

But the proposed plan goes beyond this; it contemplates that the United States government shall have authority to go into the business of buying and selling farm products, furnishing a market for the sale of the same and operating the government ships to export the same. Is there anything in the laws of finance of economics or ocean transportation to justify any such thing? If the federal government can safely go into the grain and other farm products business, buy all the farm products of the farmers, store them and take a chance on selling them, why cannot the government go into the real estate business, the clothing manufacturing business or the cotton or woolen manufacturing business? If the federal government can provide a market for farm products by buying them, why not furnish a market for all other merchandise grown or manufactured by the people? Where is the limit?

One of the economic difficulties arising out of the World War was too much government interference with business and the laws of economics and supply and demand. Price-fixing during the war brought about many complications and unsatisfactory consequences. Government cannot fix prices with success; and it will be found that this latest plan of buying and selling farm products and furnishing a market for the same, if put into operation, will fail to check economic laws, fail to regulate prices and thrust the federal government into a field it was never intended to occupy.

The mere creation of a new government agency, the appropriation of $100,000,000 to loan to that new agency for the purpose of buying up and holding farm products, will not stabilize prices, will not create more wealth, but will, in effect, increase the public debt.

Before such a measure is placed on the statute books, it needs the careful perusal and sane discussion of the people, including the farmers themselves. Is not the country drifting altogether too rapidly in the direction of government operation in the field of private business? Fundamentally the federal government has no right to enter the various avenues of business, either farming, storage or banking. Unless this tendency is checked, unless "progress" is tempered with some sound financial and economic principles, the United States may drift from a safe republic into a perilous social democracy where politics will clash with economics, government will be in peril.

Is the proposed bill under discussion a safe measure?—The National Republican.

Hondo people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a Hondo resident's statement:

Mrs. P. H. Renken, tinsmith, says:
"I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have been used by others in my family with the best or results. My kidneys were disordered and acted irregularly. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and started to use them. One box of Doan's entirely removed the trouble."

Always Gets Good Results.

The above statement was given May 29, 1915 and on May 5, 1919.
Mrs. Rnkn said: "I am just as firm a

To bring about a better under-in America and the United States, to depict the peculiarities of customs, haunts and habits both in word and photo, is the object of Mr. and Mrs.

Joseph Polah, accredited representatives of the Foreign Press Service of New York City. The two are making the journey entirely on horseback, and started from New York City, arriving in Hondo Friday, where they visited the office of the Hondo Anvil Herald. They are headed south through Mexico, Central and South America as far as Cape Horn; returning on the eastern coast through Brazil and Venezuela. Mr.
Polah is an author of various books on our social and commercial intercourse with the Latin Race. They will attempt to explore uninhabited regions never before trodden by humans and gather material of historical value while on their trip. All of the data thus obtained will appear in the various magazines and newspapers of the United States.

SALES RECORD AT SHOW

Overland Branch Breaks All Show Sales Records

Automobile show sales records set by the Overland Motor Co. of Chicago, the Willys-Overland Co. of Chicago, with the branch in Chicago, at the conclusion of the automobile show week at the A. C. Barber of the Motor company, that his branch and the Chicago dealers sold 519 cars at retail during the week from January 27 to February 2, inclusive.

More than doubled the sales of the New York branch during the annual automobile show, a record. That time was considered the best time for the year. But Chicago surpassed more than doubled the experience with Willys-Overland President Barber. "I have seen such enthusiasm, and received our new line with hearty support that we are sure the results in sales are proof of this statement of the fact that we had a favorable weather of the show, below zero weather of the show, I would have topped record of 519 retail sales."

Two weeks ago the Hondo Anvil Herald reported "six or seven cars" of Hondo citizens attended a "Ku Klux lecture in Sabinal" and spoke of the direful possibility of "Hondo becoming an armed camp of neighbors ready to murder each other on the slightest pretext" and thus advertised to the world that that town, the home of the Anvil Herald and certain officials who had said direful and terrible things about the order, had actually been invaded by the Kluxers; but in its last issue said paper pretends to believe that the Devine News has misrepresented things, and was "gloating over" their misfortune; saying that the "inability of two or three to disclose their whereabouts" on a certain night when "a suspicious looking car came in over the Yancey road" was about all there was to it. The News doesn't know anything about it, and doesn't care; but the report we made was based upon what we saw in the paper and a statement made in this office by a prominent citizen of Hondo.

Several days ago, Elmer Jungmann accidentally cut a finger with an axe while holding a piece of wood in one hand and chopping with the other. The doctor dressed it, but it didn't do well, and later Drs. Woods and Cockerhan had to amputate the finger.

Can appendicitis be guarded against? Yes, by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal anti-septic, Adler-i-ka, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing ALL foul, decaying matter which might start infection. EXCELLENT for gas on stomach or chronic constipation. It removes matter which you never thought was in your system and which nothing else can dislodge. One man reports it is unbelievable the awful impurities Adler-i-ka brought out. W. H. Windrow, Druggist.

Just arrived. Ladies' sport and dress shoes at reasonable prices at H. Olschwager's.

The quicker you can remove a Cough or Cold, the better. Deep-seated ones are a menace to the Lungs. DEVINE NEWSLETS.

From The Devine News. THE NEWS IS FOR THE P.P.P. LET'S TALK IT UP.

A newspaper item from Austin, says the three K's are fading away. It may be true that they are fading, or dying—

Let this be as it may, the Devine News is willing to let the three K's "fade" and try to interest our readers in the P.P.P. "Peas, Poultry and Pigs," we might add peanuts popcorn and potatoes, as opponents to the P.P.P. at first suggested, and either group will beat the K.K.K. that we have been raising the devil with, and about. If we could have a few meetings of the "P.P.P." it might be wise. We wouldn't have to tell any lies about where we were going, or wear any hoods to conceal our identity; and we would soon be proud, rather than ashamed of our new order. If we want to use any tar, we might soak the potato slips in a weak solution, or the bottom of peach trees, to keep the rabbits away; and if we want to whip something, we might lay it on old Beck and Jule, when they don't "Pull-Plow Politely." There are a number of ways we may use the "P.P.P." to advantage. A good Devine farmer tells this joke on his wife: "She had been working with some young turkeys, and sitting up with a sick neighbor, both very honorable things to do; and so Sunday she went to church, and actually went to sleep from being exhausted; and while the Preacher was Pleading for 'Penitential Purposes', the good lady, in her dreams, was thinking of the young turkeys, and saying audibly, 'P.P.P. until someone nudged her and she awoke somewhat embarrassed. But we are for the 'P.P.P.' Aren't you?"

Two weeks ago the Hondo Anvil Herald reported "six or seven cars" of Hondo citizens attended a "Ku Klux lecture in Sabinal" and spoke of the direful possibility of "Hondo becoming an armed camp of neighbors ready to murder each other on the slightest pretext" and thus advertised to the world that that town, the home of the Anvil Herald and certain officials who had said direful and terrible things about the order, had actually been invaded by the Kluxers; but in its last issue said paper pretends to believe that the Devine News has misrepresented things, and was "gloating over" their misfortune; saying that the "inability of two or three to disclose their whereabouts" on a certain night when "a suspicious looking car came in over the Yancey road" was about all there was to it. When Job Talked

A little Pine Street girl was shown her newly arrived baby brother. Looking at him lovingly, she said, "When will he talk, mother?"

"Oh, not for a long time yet," replied the mother.

After thinking for a minute the child exclaimed in surprise: "How funny! Miss Roberts read out of the Bible this morning that Job cursed the hour he was born."—The Home Friend Magazine.

FUNDAMENTAL REVELATION in DRAMATIC SYMBOL.

By Rev. J. T. Horger.

XIII.

Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

We have written one article on this noted trio dramatic Symbol, holding that these Three, like Adam's three sons, and like Noah's Three sons and other trios of Scripture, stand for the Three states of character, which God has ordained that each soul shall pass into in order to be saved from sin and Hell, and prepared for service to God on earth and a home in Heaven in the life to come.

We hold that Abraham, especially in early life, stood for the unsaved sinner, and Isaac stood for the regenerate child of God, and Jacob, especially in later life, stood for the truly sanctified and spirit-filled servant of Jehovah.

However, Abraham, different from Cain, Adam's sinful son, or Ham, the wicked son of Noah, HEARD the call of God in early life and obeyed, by getting out of his native land, and from his kindred and his Father's house, unto a land that God promised to shew him. Heb. 11:9 tells us by FAITH he sojourned in the land of promise." Here we find that he not only stood for the unsaved, but for a sinner possessed of true Faith in the promises of God, by which Faith, he became obedient unto God. And as Abraham passed over the land which God proposed to give him—not direct, but to one, that should be born unto him in answer to his FAITH, not according to nature, for Sarah, according to nature, was too old to bear children. Therefore, Isaac, the true heir to the promised land, was to be born according to the promise of God, by virtue of Divine power, in answer to the obedient Faith of Abraham. Thus Isaac, was a type of the spirit-born life (the new man) which God inspires in the heart of every repenting, believing, seeking sinner.

Thus Abraham represented the seeking sinner, by Faith in God's promise, and Isaac represented the spirit-born creature, who was the only heir to the promised land, exactly as the spirit-born soul is the only heir of sanctification, the state of grace which Canaan, the promised land, typified.

Now let the reader understand that the land of Canaan, was a type of the experience and life of Holiness; and Abraham by FAITH was seeking thereafter; and God, instead of giving the land direct to Abraham, He gave him the supernatural child—Isaac, who, was the only rightful heir to the holy land; thus did God Symbolize the great truth that Mr. Wesley set forth when he said in substance: "In 1739 my Brother and I read that without HOLINESS no man shall see the Lord; and at once began to seek thereafter and to incite others to do so; and in 1737 we saw that this HOLINESS is obtained by FAITH—Just as we are justified by FAITH, even so are we sanctified by FAITH. And in 1738 we learned that we MUST be justified, BEFORE WE CAN BE SANCTIFIED; nevertheless, HOLINESS—SANCTIFICATION was our aim the beginning. Sanctification must be justified—born of the spirit; and then, and not until then, may we hope in some future day to be truly sanctified, and possess the land of promise, and enjoy the life of Holiness and perfect love. Isaac must be born in, our hearts, who is the only heir to the gift of the Holy Ghost, our sanctifier, and qualifier for acceptable service on earth, and a home in Heaven.

Not only did Mr. Wesley outline this truth, but it is symbolized in Jacob's two wives, who represent the products of the two works of Grace. Jacob, representing a seeker of salvation, in his own mind, contracted seven years labor for Rachael, the beautiful and well favored—but received Leah, who was "tender eyed", and when he upgraded his Father-in-law for deceiving him, the old man said: "IT MUST NOT BE SO DONE IN OUR COUNTRY, TO GIVE THE YOUNGER BEFORE THE FIRST-BORN." Yes, just as Mr. Wesley said, Leah who typified the Justified state had to be received FIRST, and then by another seven years labor he might possess the beautiful, well-favored woman;—God's type of the Sanctified soul. Yes, one greater than Wesley or Laban said, in John 14:15 to 17. "If ye love me, keep my commandments, and I will pray the Father and He will give you ANOTHER comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the spirit of truth; WHOM THE WORLD CANNOT RECEIVE, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him; but ye knoweth Him; for He dwelleth WITH you, and SHALL be IN you.

The world CANNOT receive the Holy Ghost in His Sanctifying and comforting and enduring Power. The supernatural Isaac must be born in the soul FIRST, and he, within the heart, is the only possible heir to the promised Holy land, the experience of God-inspired righteousness, and true Holiness in this life, and everlasting joy in the world to come.

Now according to the Theology generally preached, this drama would close when Isaac, the type of the spirit-born soul was given to Abraham's FAITH. Just two states of the soul, as a rule, is all that is recognized or taught; namely: the unconverted sinner, and the spirit-born child of God. Oh, they talk about a growth of grace for the spirit-born soul, and the practice of endless good works, charity, and benevolences, etc. etc.; but they seem to entirely overlook the fact that is set forth in this drama, as also in a dozen or more others like dramas in the old Testament scriptures, together with the whole tenor of the plain teaching of the new Testament, that is: the unconverted state which is represented in this drama by Abraham, and the regenerated state by Isaac, and the Sanctified state by Jacob.

Now, in as much as Sanctification is not to be grown into, as some, vainly and unscripturally insist, but is to be wrought out in another separate and distinct dispensation, that of the Holy Ghost. The Baptism of which initiates the soul in to that dispensation. Therefore, God represents and illustrates the Sanctified character, not by Isaac as the Theology of the great majority of our Evangelical churches would suggest; but by Jacob, who was a child of the next generation; that is, a son of Isaac and Rebekah.

God did not use Isaac, to represent the soul believing in, and seeking after, and the obtaining of the inheritance—the type of sanctifying love, for the main reason, it would have fostered the commonly accepted heresy, that sanctification is nothing else, than the development of Regeneration into its highest state.

But on the other hand He chose Esau and Jacob to be born unto Isaac and Rebekah, that He might set forth the fact that Sanctification is a subsequent state of character, and is to be wrought by a subsequent dispensation of Grace.

Also we note that God chose TWO to carry out this last part of the drama: Esau and Jacob. Esau was the first born, with the double inheritance, and acted out the part of the spirit-born child of God, who cares but little or nothing for his inheritance, which on Esau's part was a double portion of his Father's material wealth; which typified the spiritual inheritance, the gift of the Holy Ghost in Sanctifying power, which is the birthright of every spirit-born child of God; and is spoken of in the new Testament as "The promise of the Father, and St. Paul declares it to be the WILL of God, even your sanctification." 1st Thes. 4:3.

Referring to the same bequest of the Father of the spirit-born, the apostle in Heb. 10:10 says: "By thee which WILL we are Sanctified."

We note that Esau was a Hairy, red, robust man, which imply a strong carnal minded disposition, and accordingly let his appetite get control of him, and therefore he sold his birthright for a mess of pottage.

Thus he represented that large per cent of God's Children, who care so little for their birthright; that is, the gift of the Holy Ghost, that they willingly sell it for the privilege of some form of worldliness or the indulgence in some pet sin or other.

Let us bear in mind that after Esau had sold his inheritance, the time came when he had to give it up; and his heart was rent with bitter sorrow and sore regret, but he found no place of repentance, though he sought it with tears. See Heb. 12:16 to 17.

Even so, it will be with God's children who neglect their inheritance, and like Esau despise it, and sell it; for a mere morsel of earthly pleasure. The time will come when they will realize WHAT they have lost and will, like Esau, sorely regret and bitterly weep over the loss of the greatest and most precious gift that God ever prepared, and offered his children in this, or the world to come.

The next step Esau took was to marry two Canaanite women, descendants of Ham, which, always stood for the carnal minded world and wicked one; and later married the daughter of Ishmael, she being three-quarter Egyptian, another tribe of the Hamites. Now the scriptures show that woman is ever the symbol of the Human, in the great drama of the probation of the race in the earth; as such, she is ever the type of the Church of God on the one hand, or a type of the wicked world on the other.

Now Esau's marriage with these Canaanite and Egyptian women, descendants of Ham, a race of God-given types of a sin cursed and lost world, evidently is an illustration, that the child of God, who like Esau, despises his inheritance, the Baptism and gift of the Holy Ghost and Fire right thereto for the privilege of a bit of sin and worldliness, will inevitably and invariably be found married in heart and soul to an ungodly world; and his or her influence will go to raise up a posterity, both literal and spiritual, that is ungodly, unspiritual, haters and opposers of the Doctrine and experience of sanctification and true, God-inspired Holiness.

Out of this kind of element comes the Holiness fighters in every age of Christianity.

The Edomites, the children of Esau, would not let the descendants of Jacob pass through their territory into Canaan, their God-given literal inheritance which God gave as a type of the gift of the Holy Spirit to His spirit-born children.

Again we note that Esau took his wives and possessions and moved south EASTWARD, which in scripture implies the act of backsliding, and settled on and round about Mount Seir, the same country and Mount that the Israelites ginned around for thirty-eight years in a backslider state, as a result of unbelief in God's promise, rejecting their inheritance and thereby fail, through those thirty-eight long and weary years, to possess the promised land of Canaan.

But Esau, having sold and lost his birth-right, neither he, nor his posterity was ever afterward counted among the children of God; nor, as any part of God's Kingdom in either, a material or spirit sense.

In fact there are several prophecies that God would entirely destroy the Edomites, the descendants of Esau, for their hatred and cruel conduct towards the children of Israel. And as far as we have been able to learn, there is not a trace of the descendants of Esau, either as a nation, or as individuals to be found in the earth today.

The above fact is an awful warning to those who sell their birth-right to the experience and life of Holiness. Therefore, I here venture to say, that the Church, or individual, after being informed, that persistently, neglect, reject, despise and cast away the doctrine and experience of Sanctification, wrought by the Baptism of the Spirit, which instantaneously purifies the heart and endures with Divine power, preparing the recipient for the abundant and acceptable service in this life and a starry crown in the world to come—such a Church or person, will soon lose out as to spiritual life and power, to begot and bring to birth Spiritual children, and although they may gather many unconverted souls into their so-called Church, neither they nor the souls that they thus gather, will be accepted as children of God, heirs of eternal life and immortal joys. Such a Church or individual, like Esau his and his children, in the morning of the resurrection cannot be found in the Lamb's book of life. The Lord willing in our next, we will follow Jacob in his faithful pursuit after the Blessing.
